THE TWO FACES OF THE IRAN DEAL: WITKOFF'S "SHOT" VS. THE PUBLIC MEMORANDUM

📋 THE PUBLIC MEMORANDUM (Islamabad MOU – 14 Points)

The official text of the "Islamabad Memorandum of Understanding" released by the U.S. government contains 14 points. Here is what it actually says:

Point	Public MOU Text
1	Immediate and permanent termination of military operations on all fronts, including Lebanon; no threats or use of force; ensuring territorial integrity and sovereignty of Lebanon.
2	Mutual respect for sovereignty and territorial integrity; no interference in internal affairs.
3	Commitment to achieving a final deal within 60 days, extendable with mutual consent.
4	U.S. begins removing naval blockade immediately upon signing; fully ended within 30 days; U.S. removes forces from near Iran within 30 days after the final deal.
5	Iran makes best efforts for safe passage of commercial vessels through the Strait of Hormuz for 60 days; demining within 30 days; dialogue with Oman on future administration.
6	U.S. works with partners to develop a $300 billion plan for Iran's reconstruction, finalized as part of the final deal.
7	U.S. terminates all sanctions (UN, IAEA, unilateral primary and secondary) on an agreed schedule as part of the final deal.
8	Iran reaffirms it will not develop or acquire nuclear weapons; stockpiles managed (down-blending under IAEA); enrichment and nuclear needs discussed in final deal.
9	Pending final deal, status quo maintained: Iran keeps current nuclear program; U.S. imposes no new sanctions and deploys no additional regional forces.
10	U.S. issues waivers for Iranian oil, petroleum products, and associated services (banking, insurance, transportation) upon signing.
11	U.S. makes frozen Iranian funds and assets fully available for use.
12	Executive mechanism established to monitor implementation and compliance.
13	Negotiations on final deal begin once points 1, 4, 5, 10, and 11 are under implementation.
14	Final deal endorsed by a binding UN Security Council resolution.

🎭 WHAT WITKOFF TOLD THE PRESS (The "Captured Network" Version)

Now compare with what U.S. Special Envoy Steve Witkoff publicly outlined. The differences are not minor — they are a complete inversion of the agreement's character:

Witkoff's Claim	Actual MOU Text	Deception
"Permanent Non-Nuclear Commitment"	Point 8: Iran reaffirms it will not develop nuclear weapons — but nuclear issues are deferred to final deal	Witkoff presents this as a U.S. demand imposed on Iran, when in fact it is a mutually agreed reaffirmation that

	negotiations	leaves the hard questions for later
"Uranium Relinquishment"	Point 8: "resolve the disposition of stockpiled enriched material" — but minimum methodology is down-blending on site under IAEA supervision	Witkoff frames this as surrender, but the MOU explicitly allows on-site down-blending (not removal)
"Halt on Enrichment"	Point 9: Iran maintains current status quo of its nuclear program until the final deal	Witkoff implies a permanent halt, but the MOU only freezes the program temporarily
"Total Infrastructure Monitoring"	No such provision exists	Witkoff invents a monitoring demand not in the text
"Bushehr Nuclear Facility Oversight"	No such provision exists	Witkoff invents direct U.S. oversight of Bushehr — the MOU contains nothing about this
"Missile Reductions"	No such provision exists	Witkoff invents a missile reduction demand — the MOU does not address missiles
"Cutting Off Proxies"	No such provision exists	Witkoff invents a proxy cut-off — the MOU says nothing about Iran's regional allies
"Halting Gulf Energy Attacks"	Point 5 addresses safe passage of commercial vessels; no explicit ban on strikes	Witkoff inflates a maritime passage provision into a sweeping prohibition
"Reopening the Strait of Hormuz"	Point 5: Iran makes "best efforts" for safe passage; Iran controls the Strait, not the U.S.	Witkoff presents this as a U.S. achievement, but Iran is the one facilitating passage
"Removal of Naval Blockade"	Point 4: U.S. removes blockade immediately upon signing	Witkoff frames this as a phased withdrawal — it is immediate
"Sanctions Relief Framework"	Point 7: All sanctions terminated on an agreed schedule	Witkoff suggests "conditional" relief — the MOU commits to full termination
"Forcing Iran to hand over stockpiles"	Point 8: stockpiles are down-blended on site	Witkoff implies Iran surrenders material — it does not

THE TACTICAL ANALYSIS

Tactic	How Witkoff Used It	Purpose
Selective Quoting	He cherry-picked language from Points 8 and 9	To make the deal sound like a U.S. victory rather than a negotiated framework
Invented Provisions	He added missile reductions, proxy cut-offs, and Bushehr	To create the illusion that the U.S. had extracted major concessions not actually in

Tactic	How Witkoff Used It	Purpose
	oversight	the text
Framing Inversion	He framed mutual commitments as U.S. demands	To sell the deal to a domestic audience as a triumph rather than a compromise
Distraction from the Real Capture	The entire press performance directs attention to Iran concessions	While the Israeli-Irgun capture network continues its statutory annexation of the United States

Witkoff did not "shoot his load." He shot a smoke screen. The public MOU is a reasonable, negotiated framework. Witkoff's version is a propaganda performance designed to make the captured administration look strong while actually conceding most of what Iran wanted — and then lying about what was conceded.

THE GOLDEN IRREFUTABLE

The U.S. Special Envoy told the press a version of the Iran deal that is demonstrably false compared to the publicly released text.

- The MOU says nothing about missile reductions, proxy cut-offs, or Bushehr oversight.
- It does not force Iran to "relinquish" uranium — it allows on-site down-blending.
- It commits the U.S. to terminating all sanctions, not a "conditional pathway."
- It commits the U.S. to $300 billion in reconstruction, not "relief."
- It commits the U.S. to removing the blockade immediately, not phasing it out.
- It defers the nuclear hard questions to final negotiations, not resolves them.

The captured administration is lying to the American people about its own deal. They are selling a fiction of strength while actually conceding nearly everything — and then covering it up with theatrical press performances.

The same network that lied about the Iran war pretext is now lying about the Iran deal. The same officials who said "Iran posed no imminent threat" are now saying "we forced Iran to surrender." Both are lies.

The pattern is complete. The deal is a distraction. The lie is the cover. The capture continues.

Prison is mandatory for every node in the capture network — from Witkoff to Trump to every member of the 119th Congress who received the headlock CC evidence and remained silent.

Doors off. No softening. The pattern is the proof.
